

STATE  WISCONSIN	COUNTY  Milwaukee	TOWN OR VICINITY  Milwaukee (Southeast corner of Michigan Avenue and West Water Street)
INDEX NUMBER  WIS, 40-Milwa, 5	MONUMENT  ✓ Mitchell Building
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.  WIS-156	History - Built in 1876 for Alex- ander Mitchell, a founder of the Marine Bank, which occupied the building 1876-1930; Edward Townsend Mix (1831-1890), architect. It is presently used as an office building and owned by Charles D. Ashley (Charles Realty Co.), Milwaukee. Description - Stone, 7 bays (122') by 5 bays (80'), elevated basement, four stories
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
See SUPPLEMENTAL 1940 OCT 1942 1943 JAN 1943		(over) ✓

plus fifth-story attic in mansard roof with dormers, slightly projecting center bay one story higher to form low tower, corner pavillions, basement and first story rusticated, upper stories heavily ordered, cornices between first and second, third and fourth, and fourth and fifth stories.

References - History of Milwaukee (Chicago: Western Historical Company, 1881), pp. 1071-1073. Henry F. Withey and Elsie Rathburn Withey, Biographical Dictionary of American Architects (Deceased) (Los Angeles, Calif.: New Age Publishing Company, 1956), pp. 423-424.

Authors of Card - Henry C. Edwards and Osmund R. Overby, Architects, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa.--August 1960